Anticipated Arrivals:

The U.S. Department of State allocates refugees based on where the resettlement agency is located. In FFY (federal fiscal year) 2016, refugees have been (preliminarily) allocated to programs in the counties below. Actual arrivals may vary. The local refugee resettlement programs and the Tennessee Office for Refugees (TOR) have met with state and local officials and collectively believe that the programs and these counties have the capacity to successfully resettle refugees.

FFY 2016:

Davidson/Rutherford/Williamson	1,350
Hamilton	85
Knox	215
Shelby	200

Actual Arrivals:

For the period of this report, actual new arrivals to counties were as follows:

Davidson	250
Hamilton	26
Knox	68
Rutherford	23
Shelby	54
Williamson	1

Age Breakdown:

The age breakdown for these arrivals is as follows:

Minors	186
Employable adults	227
Seniors	9

Letters of Agreement:

The agreements for FFY 2016 were submitted with the first quarterly report this year. The agreements for FFY 2017 will be submitted with the next quarterly report.

Information Requests:

For the period of this report, TOR received multiple correspondences from Representative Ragan, information/data requests from college students and professors, media outlets re: the passage and status of SJR 467, and citizens who want to help resettle refugees (directed to the resettlement agencies as volunteers). We also received information requests from a local blogger, as well as requests for information regarding health screenings (related to misinformation published by the local blogger).

No complaints were received.
